Enjoy a scenic road trip along the Thermal Explorer Highway and experience nature's awesome earth forces, dramatic scenery entwined with culture and unique adventures

Running through the heart of the Central North Island, the Thermal Explorer Highway provides an ideal itinerary for travelers wishing to experience the best of what the area has to offer but only have a short time frame.

Starting from Auckland or Hamilton your trip will enable you to experience Hamilton's laid-back urban vibe and the stunning Waikato River before heading south to the world-famous Waitomo Caves to try your hand at black water rafting, abseiling or glowworm viewing. From Waitomo this itinerary takes you east to Rotorua, the birthplace of New Zealand tourism for some geothermal action and then down to Taupo for water sports and outdoor adventure thrills before ending in Hawke's Bay and Napier, the stunning Art Deco capital.
